

When we are touch by bodies of greater temperature than ourselves, the warmer bodies well keep parting with its heat until we are of equal temperature the same with good and evil. If we are touch by evil we slowing become evil if we are touch by good we slowly become good.

Barry Wyatt Jr.

My songs are my prayers

Linking my songs together creates my life story